All India Railwaymen's Federation

4, State Entry Road, New Delhi-110055 (INDIA)

No.AIRF/34(207)

Estd. - 1924

Dated: June 17, 2023

Hon'ble Minister for Railways,
Ministry of Railways,
(Government of India)
Rai Bhawan,
New Delhi
Respected Sir,

Sub: Engagement of the CCAAs against CEN No.RRC No.01/2019

Para 12.02 of the aforementioned Notification(CEN No.RRC No.01/2019) mentions that the candidate shall be considered to have completed Act Apprenticeship Training only if he/she has appeared in the NCVT Examination before the last date, the result of which might not have been declared. NAC Certificate, issued by the NCVT, to be submitted at the time of Documents Verification.

- Cut-off date for application was 12.04.2019.
- Candidates completed their training up to February 2019, i.e. well before last date 12.04.2019.
- 109th batch of 2017-18 examination was conducted by the RDAT from 29.05.2019 to 14.06.2019, and in five states from 26.06.2019 to 28.06.2019.
- Delay in conduct of the examination is attributable to the Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship.
- All the candidates possessed NAC Certificate at the time of Documents Verification.

Since all the candidates had completed training before the cut-off date, i.e. 12.04.2019, and were in possession of the NAC Certificate at the time of Documents Verification, they should be considered for recruitment.

Although, the CCAAs, in possession of the NAC Certificate issued by the NCVT, are available, but they are being deprived of just because of their examination was delayed on the administrative ground.

Sincerely yours,

(Shiva Gopal Mishra)

Subject : Direct appointment in Railways of trained Apprentices and D.O.P.T.
Guidelines

Respected Sir,

I would like to bring your kind notice the following matter which deserves your kind attention and necessary action :

A number of trained Apprentices including above 40 candidates from my constituency, Nandurbar (Maharashtra) are still unemployed although they have completed apprentice training in 2016. In Central Railways, The ACE Apprentices are directly employed in the Railways in 2017 but Western Zone and other zone of Railways have not appointed them with the reason best known to them.

So, I request you to kindly look into the matter and direct Western Zone and Other Zones of Railways to give the direct appointment to the unemployed trained apprentices under D.O.P.T. guidelines by power of General Manager.

With warm regards.

Yours Sincerely

(Dr. Heena Vijaykumar Gavit)
